Simple Javascript Commands

element below refers to any element on the page. An element can be the page itself (document) or even the whole window (window), or just a single element.

These are just the function names. In order to use these functions, you would need to apply the correct syntax.

*element.*querySelector

*element.*querySelectorAll

*element.*addEventListener
  A few sample events that can be listened for ● mouseenter
  ● mouseover
  ● click
  ● select
  ● keydown
  ● play
  ● resize

element.classList.add element.classList.remove

*element.*play